1. WITTENBERG

- (a) Apart from certain military units known to be housed in the Elbe Barracks on the outskirts of Wittenberg, this compound also contains an airforce signal unit commanded by a Lieutenant Colonel Pusanov. Its strength is estimated at two companies. There is a definite connection between this unit and the airforce communications center at No. 4 Rooseveltstrasse in Wittenberg.
- (b) An airforce motor transport company is also quartered at the Elbe Barracks.
- (c) Colonel Nesul has been relieved by a new commander.

2. JUTERBOG

- (a) The 229th Aviation Repair Base is stationed at Jüterbog. This is commanded by a Lieutenant Colonel Prosev. It appears that the repair unit at Altes Lager commanded by Major Kamarov is subordinate to this formation.
- (b) the airforce unit located at Altes Lager under the command of Colonel Korshakov is now known to be a flying unit. Similarly the unit under the command of Colonel Red'ko is known to have
- (c) The food and clothing depot under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Lebedev is under direct control of the 24th Air Army headquarters at Potsdam/Werder rather than that of the corps at Wittenberg. There is also a second depot in this vicinity under the command of Colonel Linkev.
